This discipline plan is a general guideline followed by the faculty and staff. It should be understood that each incident of misbehavior will be judged based on severity and number of occurrences. The principal or assistant principal will use his/her professional judgment and discretion to determine what type of discipline is necessary to maintain a safe and orderly environment for all students to succeed. It should also be noted that, if deemed necessary by the principal, assistant principal, or teacher, a student may advance to a latter step in the discipline plan without observing earlier steps. Additional forms of discipline, listed in the JNHS Student Code of Conduct, may also be employed.
